IN 40th YEAR — EVERY WEEK SINCE 1905.

HAMLIN, JONES COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, JULY 20, 1945

NUMBER 38

New School Men Arrive In Hamlin

This week the Herald presents three new school men who have been selected for the school term beginning in September. Two of them are here and located. The Superintendent has purchased a home on Houston Avenue, and the Vocational Agriculture teacher has rented a residence on Hope Avenue and has moved in.

SUPT. I. R. HUCHINGSON

Some weeks ago the School Board announced the election of Mr. I. R. Huchingson, of Roscoe, as Superintendent of the Hamlin Schools. Mr. Huchingson arrived in Hamlin last week and has already made many acquaintances. He is a typical, big, West Texas man, easy to meet, pleasant to talk with and business-like. He comes to Hamlin with a fine record as a school director from Roscoe where he began work in 1935.

COACH L. B. HOWARD

L. B. Howard (generally referred to as "Red"), who piloted the Roscoe Plowboys to a high point of victories, will be on the Hamlin Piper Field in a few weeks to shape up some New Pipers. Mr. Howard is a married man, has a wife and one 16-months-old daughter. From past records, besides at Roscoe, we may expect to hear much more about this young fellow in Hamlin activities.

Mr. Huchingson has secured two young men teachers, well known to him, and also by many Hamlin people. The other members of the faculty will be announced later.

MR. AND MRS. O. G. EBERT MOVING FROM HAMLIN

Thirty-eight years ago, a very sturdy, determined couple came to Hamlin to make their home. It was in December 1907. Hamlin was a young town then and nothing was needed more than a first class blacksmith, and O. G. Ebert was just that from the beginning. But this month, 1945, Mr. and Mrs. Ebert are not as young and sturdy as 38 years ago. However, they have carried on an unbroken line of work, from that day till they sold a few days ago. They will leave soon and will first stop in Houston, and later, maybe Coleman.

A bit of their history is very interesting. When Mr. Ebert was 14

New Vocational Ag. Teacher On Faculty

This week we had the pleasure of meeting Mr. T. C. Blankinship, the man who has been elected by the School Board to head Hamlin's Vocational Agricultural work in this section.

We find that Mr. Blankinship has had 12 years' experience as a teacher, two of these as Vocational Agriculture leader. He comes to Hamlin from a fine rural school, Highland, eight miles south of Roscoe. He has also taught in Fisher County, so this West Texas sunshine, wind and problems are what he has been trained to meet.

Mr. Blankinship has a wife and three children, a son, Boyce, 5, and two daughters, Tricia, 2, and Billie Frank, 1-month-old. They have secured the Floyd Wilson residence for their home.

Wants To Meet FFA Boys Friday Night

Mr. Blankinship asked the Herald to say for him that he wants to meet all the Regular FFA boys and those who expect to enroll in Vocational Agriculture this fall. He requests that they meet him this Friday night, July 20, at 9:00 o'clock at the High School building. Boys who read this or who hear about this will please pass the word on to their boy friends and go down and meet this new leader.

TO HOLD MEETING IN PADUCAH

Minister Mardell Lynch, of the Church of Christ, is leaving this Friday for Paducah to begin a meeting that will continue through July 29. In his absence, J. W. Treat, head of the Language Department of Abilene Christian College, will fill the pulpit at the Hamlin Church of Christ the next two Sundays.

years of age, his family, typical old fashioned German stock, came to Texas from Upper Silecia, Germany. The parents and six boys. They came over in a sail boat and it took them about a month to come across (as the wind blew) to Galveston. Both father and mother died within two years and within three months of each other. The father had served by compulsion in the Franco-Prussian War, and got out of Germany because he did not want his sons to be forced to do military training. The old father sternly hated that idea.

Today there are but four of the Ebert boys living. Besides O. G. of Hamlin, the others are G. H. Ebert of Galveston; J. H. of Alexandria, La.; and Richard in New York City. Emil and Robert died a few years ago.

O. G. Ebert married Miss Margia Whatley, at Calvert, Texas, in April 1901. Coming to Hamlin, they located their home and shop near what was once the A & S Depot, two blocks east of the present Herald office. They saw, as the years passed, other kinds of businesses encroach upon their residence, such as gins, warehouses, stock pens, filling station, show lots, etc., but they could do nothing about it. In their older days, they are leaving a community where a host of good friends will long remember them. Their blacksmithing shop has been purchased by a capable man who will announce when he gets ready for accepting work.

Can Your Fruits Without Sugar Says Gas Expert

This year's abundant fruit crop is wasting away because of a mistaken idea that fruit cannot be canned without sugar. Sugar aids in retaining the color and holding the shape of fruits, but they can be successfully canned without using sugar, according to Julia Hunter, home economics director for Lone Star Gas Company.

To can fruits without sugar, Miss Hunter advised, follow the standard canning methods, using plain boiling water or boiling unsweetened fruit juice as a substitute for sugar syrups.

Miss Hunter has been busy recently answering requests for information on sugarless canning.

"In sugarless canning," she said, "add just enough water or fruit juice to the prepared fruit to prevent sticking and cook until hot through. Then pack fruit into hot jars, cover with liquid in which fruit was cooked and process in the boiling water bath."

Many people are freezing their fruits as the deep freeze method comes more into use. Miss Hunter advised that as a substitute for sugar and sugar syrups in preparing fruits for freezing, corn syrup may be used. Her recipe for this is as follows:

"Make a syrup of 1½ cups corn syrup and 2 cups water; cool. Prepare and pack fruits in containers, cover with the cooled syrup. As each container is packed, put in refrigerator until ready to freeze."

Another method for preserving fruits is the drying process. Miss Hunter's formula for this is as follows: "Fruits to be dried need not be peeled. Cut fruit in halves and remove seeds. Drop fruit in solution made of 3½ tablespoons sodium sulphate dissolved in one gallon cold water, to preserve color. Allow to stand 15 minutes. Drain fruit, spread on racks and place in very low gas oven (105 deg. F.) until

H. Fields Died After Short, Serious Illness

H. Fields, prominent farmer and citizen of the Neinda-Boyd Chapel communities, passed away at the Stamford Hospital last Friday afternoon at 8:00 o'clock, after a very short serious illness. He had been in poor health for about a year and according to information, he had a form of trouble that affected the blood.

Mr. Fields was born at Van Alstyne, Texas, Feb. 13, 1876, and was 69 years and five months of age. He is survived by his wife, the former Miss Lillie Williams, and nine children, whose names and addresses are as follows: Roy Fields, Hamlin; Mrs. Charles Bisbee, Portland, Ore.; Miss Hester Fields, a member of the WAC, stationed in New York; Miss Mable Fields, who made her home with her parents; Mrs. Rex Kemp, Roby; Morris Fields, New Orleans; Wilburne Fields, El Segundo, Calif.; Mrs. John Kirschner, who makes her home with her parents, while her husband is in the Army; and Pvt. Hilton Fields, stationed at Geneva, Neb. Fortunately, all of the children were permitted to come for their father's funeral.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon, July 16, at the Methodist Church at Neinda, with Rev. Grady Adecock, a former pastor, in charge. Mr. Fields had been a member of a church for many years.

The Barrow Company of Hamlin had charge of the burial arrangements, and the body was placed to rest in the Neinda Cemetery.

The communities that surrounded Mr. Fields' home will remember him as an active, interested citizen, and as such he will be missed.

Miss Lois Ellen Stell came up from San Antonio to spend the past week end at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Stell.

dry. Drying will take from six to eight hours."

TEXAS' HIGHWAY COMMISSION CHAIRMAN

Hon. John S. Redditt

The Hon. John S. Redditt, new Chairman of the Highway Commission of Texas, in a letter dated July 9 to the Editor of the Herald, commented as follows on his recent "get acquainted visit" to Hamlin and Jones County:

"I enjoyed very much my stay in Jones County and made a very favorable impression on me. I do not know of anything that will bring greater benefits to the people in your section than our program of Farm to Market Roads."

Maybe it is a good thing this County has such rich, broad-stretching fields, and lovely rural homes, with its hundreds of miles of level, rockless, farm roads. Such a picture should catch the eye of any real, red blooded Texan like John S. Redditt. We bet those pine-hedged, little fields around Lufkin look still smaller after "Senator John's" visit to Jones County and West Texas. The Herald sees right now that this is ONE Highway Commissioner who would make a good booster for this part of Texas. So after he serves a long time in his present capacity, "WE" might make him Governor or something bigger, and then he might come out this way and locate. What ye say, Mr. Redditt? We'll be looking for you when we get "that road" done. We'll show you how we West Texans can feed visitors on "gypped" barbecued chickens. (We don't have any squirrels out here you know.)

Hamlin Lieutenant Missing Since 1944 Is Reported Dead

LT. MILTON Y. WILSON

The many friends of Mrs. M. Y. Wilson have felt keenly sympathetic for her and her family since the days of uncertainty started when the news came that her son, Second Lieutenant M. Y. Wilson, had been reported as missing while in aerial combat over Europe on April 11, 1944.

The War Department expresses itself to Mrs. Wilson much in the same feeling that Hamlin community people have felt all along. We quote in part a letter from the Department, dated April 12, 1945. It reads:

"Dear Mrs. Wilson:

"Since your son, Second Lieutenant Milton Y. Wilson, 0815691, Air Corps, was reported missing in action 11 April 1944, the War Department has entertained the hope that he survived and that information would be revealed dispelling the uncertainty surrounding his absence. However, as in many cases, the conditions of warfare deny us such information. The records concerning your son indicate that he was a crew member on a Flying Fortress which failed to return from a bombing mission to Stettin, Germany, on 11 April 1944. His plane went down near Brunswick, Germany, after it had been badly damaged by enemy aircraft. In view of the fact that twelve months have now expired without the receipt of evidence to support a continued presumption of survival, the War Department must terminate such absence by a presumptive finding of death. Accordingly, an official finding of death has been recorded. In the case of your son, this date has been set as 12 April 1945, the day following the expiration of twelve months' absence. I hope you may find sustaining comfort in the thought that the uncertainty with which war has surrounded the absence of your son has enhanced the honor of his service to his country and his sacrifices. "Sincerely, J. A. Ulio, Maj. Gen."

General Ira C. Eaker

Writes To The Young Wife

The following letter was written to the young Lieutenant's wife who lives in Mobile, Ala. She and her little nine months old daughter, Patty Louise, are visiting a few weeks in the home of Mrs. M. Y. Wilson. The letter is dated May 8, 1945.

"My dear Mrs. Wilson:

"With deepest regret I have learned that an official determination has been made of the death of your husband, Second Lieutenant Milton Young Wilson, who has been missing in action since April 11, 1944.

"My attention has been called to the praiseworthy record that Lieutenant Wilson established during his pilot training at Blytheville Army Air Field, and to diligent, eager effort he made to accomplish each assignment to complete satisfaction of his commanding officers. A competitive spirit and strong leadership won the respect of his comrades, who regarded him as a conscientious officer on whom they could depend in all circumstances.

"I hope the memory, that your husband gave his utmost for our cause will be a source of comfort in your sorrow. I offer my heartfelt sympathy to you and other members of the family.

"Very sincerely,
"Ira C. Eaker, Lieutenant Gen., Army Air Forces."

MEETING STARTS AT CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH

Our revival meeting starts tonight, Friday, July 20, at 8:30 o'clock.

NEINDA BAPTIST CHURCH

START MEETING, JULY 29

Sunday, July 29, Rev. B. C. Beard of McAdoo will begin a series of sermons at the Neinda Baptist Church. Everybody is invited to attend this revival meeting at Neinda. (38-2)

—O—

Ashes of burned money can be analyzed and redeemed.

The above official letters must lead all of us who knew and loved M. Y. Wilson, to conclude that our hopes for his ultimate return have been in vain. It is now that we can express our deepest sympathy to the mother, and the bereaved wife, the former Miss Dorris Dudley, and her little daughter, Patty Louise Wilson. Before, we all could only hope—and now we must realize this fine young man of Hamlin has paid the supreme sacrifice for his country.

Lieutenant Wilson is also survived by two brothers, Jack R. Wilson of Abilene, and Lt. (jg) Stanley P. Wilson, who is serving somewhere in the Pacific with the Navy; and two half-brothers, Clyde and Floyd Wilson, of Hamlin.

M. Y. Wilson was born in Hamlin, Dec. 20, 1920. He grew to manhood in Hamlin, graduated from the Hamlin High School in 1939, attended North Texas State Teachers College at Denton, and later was employed by the State Highway Department. He enlisted in the Army Air Forces Dec. 29, 1941. He attended the Technical Training Command School at Kansas City, Mo., and had his pre-flight training at Maxwell Field, Montgomery, Ala. Other training was at Americus, Ga.; Cochran Field, Macon, Ga.; Blytheville, Ark.; and Dahlhart, Texas.

M. Y. Wilson was commissioned a Second Lieutenant at Blytheville, Ark., Nov. 3, 1943, and went overseas March 1, 1944, into the battle to conquer Germany. He was based in England and went down on his second mission, April 11, 1944. Lt. Wilson was co-pilot of a B-17. He was posthumously awarded the Purple Heart.

Most of us had known this young man from infancy. We know he had everything in manhood that makes a great nation great. He paid his all that we at home may continue to enjoy the blessings of a free, happy land. A boy like M. Y. Wilson would never flinch from danger or a task that he knew must be done for those whom he loved back home. His name will be honored by all who knew him.

Miss Ava Hudson, local clerk for the OPA, has been on a vacation the past two weeks and returned to her office Monday. She visited relatives in San Angelo and spent some of her time in Del Rio, Texas, and Villa Acuna, Old Mexico. Miss Hudson has been with the OPA office nearly three years, and the hundreds of persons who have dealt with the government through her, will testify that every courtesy and consideration possible has been shown them. One main thing she shows concern and sympathy, and that counts whether or not one gets anything else he thinks he should have these War Days. —O—

Mr. and Mrs. Jack A. Harden and son, Jack Harden, Jr., AOM 3/c, of the U. S. Navy, and daughter, Judy, are spending this week end at College Station with their son, Bob Harden, who is an ASTRP student in A. & M.

About Soldiers--Sailors

Pfc. Charles Carter, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Carter of the Flat Top community, arrived Wednesday night from Europe. He was in combat 10 months, going in at Marseilles, France, and kept on up through Nancy, Strausbourg, Stuttgart, Munich, and on till he reached Innsbruck, Austria. Charles says he was in a battalion that fought with almost every unit of the Seventh Army. He wears two battle stars and he still has only 33 points. He says if they will lower it to 30, he might get out. He will report in 31 days to Ft. Jackson, S. C. As evidence that he met the Germans, he brought back an SS Trooper's watch and two crack pistols. —O—

Pvt. James W. (Billie) Reynolds who has been training at Camp Hood, Texas, left Monday for Ft. Ord, Calif., after spending a furlough here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Reynolds. He has two brothers on Luzon in the Philippines: T/Sgt. Weldon M. Reynolds is a flight chief in a fighter squadron, and Sgt. D. C. Reynolds is a radio repairman. —O—

Jack Harden, Jr., AOM 3/c, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack A. Harden. He has been training for the past few months in Florida. At the expiration of his leave, he will report to a Naval Base near Detroit, Mich. He will be here until about July 25. —O—

Pfc. Troy (Boots) Walker who formerly lived in Hamlin and will be remembered as associated with the late Lt. Hub Hyatt in business, was in town this week, direct from the Pacific fighting. He has a long line of experience from Australia up to the Philippines. He has been in Texas a few days, stopping with his mother and sister at Lubbock. Wish we could have learned more of his war-life. —O—

S/Sgt. and Mrs. Roland O. Malcik came up from Randolph Field last week to visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Reynolds, and to be with Mrs. Malcik's brother, Pvt. James W. Reynolds, who was home on furlough. —O—

RETURNING TO DUTY

It is quite proper now to say Mr. and Mrs. Carl D. Andress, and that both of them are returning to duty. But one goes east while the other travels west, all so soon after their recent marriage. They left Wednesday. Mrs. Andress, the former Eva Louise Fowler, will resume her work in a government office in Washington City, and the Navy man, Chief Radioman Andress left for Seattle, Wash., where he will receive some additional training and then maybe fly over the Pacific to help close "another war."

Carl served 18 months in the European theater as radioman gunner aboard a Navy Liberator search plane, on 25 combat patrols. Andress was in one of five patrols that got credit for sinking 14 German U-boats, with some "probables." Out in the Pacific, the hunting will be good. —O—

Staff Sgt. Wynell Watson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Watson, left last Friday for his post at Salina, Kan., after being at home ten days. Sgt. Watson is crew chief on a B-29, and indications are that he is headed for Japan. —O—

S&S

Sgt. Alpha O. Butler arrived last Monday from Europe where he had served in the 4th Infantry Div. as a member of the Artillery. Alpha landed at Liverpool, Jan. 29, 1944. On D-Day, his outfit was out in the Channel. He had a close call on that day; his battery was carried in about three boats. The battery suffered heavy losses when one boat hit a mine and broke in two. Lucky for Alpha, he was not on that boat. When he landed, he kept going forward almost without rest, through France, Belgium, into Germany, and when V-E Day came, he was within two miles of Austria. —O—

Sgt. Butler was right in the middle of the famous "Battle of the Bulge." He got only a slight face scratch—not quite enough to get the Purple Heart. —O—

Alpha has about 77 points and it looks as if he might have a chance for discharge. He will report to Ft. Sam Houston on Aug. 17. This is another Hamlin boy who has done his part—lacks a little being in three years. He has two brothers in service: Pfc. Thomas in Hawaii and Sgt. Oliver T. in Camp Blanding, Fla. —O—

S&S

The Herald has a letter from Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Armstrong, who recently sold their home on Jackson Avenue to Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Reynolds, and moved to 1520 32nd St., Lubbock. They say they like Lubbock fine; however, it has not rained enough to make crops. When they left Hamlin, they were expecting their sailor son, Billy, to come in from the Pacific. Instead, his girl, Miss Bobbie June Willis, of San Antonio, met him in Seattle, and they were married. (Congratulations, Billy.) —O—

PSST— THAT'S YOU!

Were you ever startled by a fleeting glimpse of a face in a public mirror? ... Then you looked again and sheepishly recognized your own reflection! It was the unfamiliar setting that fooled you.

Same way, you may not recognize yourself at first as having a financial stake in this company. But you probably do—directly or indirectly.

Directly if you hold some of our stock, like many other folks around the state—folks from all walks of life. Sixty per cent of all our stockholders reside in Texas.

Indirectly if you have a savings bank account or life insurance policy as most Americans do. Banks and insurance companies like to reinvest your savings in sound, business-managed electric companies. Some of your money is almost surely working for you here.

You'll be even more pleased with this new view of yourself as a part owner as well as a customer when you remember that your electric company has fought a winning fight throughout the war—to keep the price of your service down and the quality of your service up.

Card of Thanks

To our neighbors and friends who have been so kind and sympathetic to us in our hours of sorrow, we sincerely thank each and every one. For your many acts of kindness and expressions of love to our dear husband and father, we shall ever be grateful.

Mrs. H. Fields and Children

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton B. Roberts and sons, Don and Jimmy, returned to their home in Houston after a two weeks visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Roberts.

Mrs. Aubrey Daniels and children, Milton and Freddie, of Lubbock, were here this week visiting her sister, Mrs. Floyd Bevels, and brother, Tom Prichard, and other relatives.

Miss Carrie Johnson returned to San Antonio Saturday after spending a week in Hamlin with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Johnson.

Miss Katherine Drake visited Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Lewis in Abilene last week.

Card of Thanks

In our long months of uncertainty and sorrow, and then when the final word came that our son and brother would never return to us, we have received continuous and sincere expressions of sympathy and consolation from our friends. To all who have expressed an interest and given us so many kind words and comfort, we sincerely thank you.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hayes
And Children.

Hitson Club Notes

The Hitson H. D. Club met on Thursday, July 12, in the home of Mrs. G. B. Phillips. The meeting was called to order by the president, after which the minutes were read.

The Agent gave several demonstrations on making ice cream and frozen sherbert. She also gave a number of recipes with the use of syrup in place of sugar. All the ice cream and sherbert were made with syrup. All agreed that they couldn't have been better even if made with sugar.

The girls met with us. They have joined our club. We welcome them and urge that they attend each meeting. We are all looking forward to the encampment at Roby, July 26, and want all the girls to be present.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served to Meses. T. A. Jean, Holland, Plemons, B. B. Phillips, Morris Jean, Choate, Williams, Carter, Caldwell, McCullough, several girls and small children, and the hostess.

The next meeting, Sept. 13, will be with Mrs. Caldwell. Let's not forget to attend. —Reporter.

Hamlin Garden Club

Mrs. Jack Norton was hostess to the Hamlin Garden Club, Friday afternoon, July 13. Roll call was answered by members naming perennials they have enjoyed most in their gardens this season.

Mrs. R. A. Crockett was leader of the program and discussed "Watering the Garden." Mrs. W. C. Russell gave instruction on how to build a compost hill. An interesting paper, prepared by Mrs. J. W. Ezell, on "The Perennial Border," was read by Mrs. C. P. Yates, as Mrs. Ezell was unavoidably absent.

Reminders for the month: Water, Mulch, and Cultivate. —Reporter.

Mrs. Carl D. Andress
Honoree At Gift Tea

Mrs. Carl D. Andress, the former Eva Louise Fowler, was honored with a gift tea Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Joe L. Culbertson. Co-hostesses with Mrs. Culbertson were Mrs. Thos. Teague, Mrs. Harold Bonner, Mrs. Loren Griffin, Mrs. L. C. Bonds, Mrs. Landon V. Davis, Mrs. A. B. Carlton, Miss Marjorie Riddle, and Mrs. W. L. Fletcher, Jr.

Receiving were Mrs. Bonner, Mrs. Culbertson, the honoree, Mrs. Paul A. Fowler, Mrs. William F. Andress, Mrs. W. F. Mayfield of Roby, and Miss Leone Meadows of Wichita Falls.

Arrangements of roses and daisies were placed throughout the entertaining rooms.

Mrs. Davis directed guests to the dining room where Mrs. Griffin presided over the tea table. She was assisted by Mrs. Bonds and Miss Riddle. The table, laid with a Venetian cut-work cloth, was centered with an arrangement of multicolored dahlias on a mirror reflector. Appointments were in crystal.

Miss Janet Bonner invited guests to the rooms where gifts were displayed by Mrs. C. B. McGough and Miss Lois Ellen Stell of San Antonio.

Music was furnished by Mrs. Mardell Lynch, Miss Dora Joyce Culbertson, Miss Diane Carlton, and Miss Bonner.

Mrs. Teague was in charge of the register. Good-byes were said by Mrs. Carlton and Mrs. Dora Via.

POT-SHOTS FROM McCAULLEY

BY GEO DARDEN

Mr. and Mrs. Egibert Dick visited last Sunday in the home of his parents, Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Dick.

T/Sgt. Linnie Wheeler Eivens has been discharged from the Army on the point system. He was with the 36th Division and has seen much combat service. He was awarded the Bronze Star and Combat Infantryman Badge. He and his wife are at home temporarily in Spur, Texas. Sgt. Eivens is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charley Eivens of McCaulley.

Good crowds are attending the singings each Wednesday night at the Baptist Church. Also there are singings each first and third Sundays of each month at 2:30 P. M. Same place. You are invited. Wayne Webb is president.

Sgt. and Mrs. J. B. Jayroe, from Indiana, are here for a 15-day visit with their parents.

Vacation time is here, but no means of travel, so most folks just stay at home in these parts, or go places where it isn't too far to walk.

Come to think about it—the shortage of soap and lard in this neck of the woods is getting down right serious to housewives. Women can do without lard as they can roast rabbits over a camp fire, but doing without soap—that's another matter. Try to make a woman forget about "wash day" and you will end up in a "padded cell."

Rev. C. E. Dick tells us that he saw a red ring around his name on the Herald and hands us another year's subscription. Thanks, Preacher. And by the way, visiting in the Dick home last Sunday and Monday were Mrs. Hazel Young and daughters, from Spur. The talented Young sisters sang a duet at the church Sunday night. They are granddaughters of Mr. and Mrs. Dick.

Mrs. Floyd Curtis, of Big Spring, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Alf Hemphill, and other relatives and friends in this community.

Mrs. Tom Scholar and sons, of Robert Lee, Texas, visited last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hennington.

Attending Boys' Camp at Lueders this week are the following from McCaulley: Bryan Hennington, Tyrus Hicks, Jiggs McNeal, Howard Kean, Callans George, Charles Miers Eivens, Willie D. Rankin, Gerald Berry, and Geo. Matt Darden. Mr. Roy Hennington accompanied the group and is in charge.

T. R. Miers, of Houston, visited relatives in McCaulley over the week end.

The singings at the Baptist Church each Wednesday night are getting bigger and better. If you like to sing or to hear good singing, then you are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Houghton, of Hamlin, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sharman Houghton, last Sunday.

SYLVESTER NEWS ITEMS

By Merrena Vaughan

Sgt. Olan Turner is spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Turner, while on his way West.

S/Sgt. Bill Bridges is spending a 30-day furlough with his wife, the former Elizabeth Parsons, and baby. Sgt. Bridges was with the Medical Corps in the Third Army, under Gen. Patton. He came through several severe battles without a scratch, but he was badly scared.

There is nothing we can say or do that can show these returning veterans how much we appreciate them. All we can say is: Thanks from the bottom of our hearts! And continue to wish them luck.

The Baptist Church has just closed their summer revival, with very good preaching done by the pastor, Rev. W. C. Dever, and the singing led by D. C. Hamilton of Veron. We feel that the meeting was a success.

A new family is living in our town, Charlie Dever and his wife. Mr. Dever is employed in the Moffett Grocery. We hope they will like our town.

Mr. and Mrs. Lamont Haley are the proud parents of a daughter, born July 13, in the Callan Hospital, Rotan. Mrs. Haley is the former Hazel Williams. The young lady's father is in the Service and is stationed in Arizona.

Mrs. Vernon Carothers, Mrs. Jack Simons and children, and Mrs. Burns McKinney and small son are visiting

'Think on these things'

A Divine Septuple

(CONCLUSION)

The apostle who said there is one God, said also there is one body. It is proper always to define Scripture by Scripture, and to let the Scripture explain itself. What was the apostle talking about when he said there is one body? He tells us in I Cor. 12, and likewise in the Ephesian letter, the body is the church. (Eph. 1:20-23) In Col. 1:18, the apostle reversed the statement by saying, "The body, the church." The church is the body and the body is the church, and yet the apostle said there is one body which was built by the Lord. His body, the church and certainly the Lord never intended any more. And had man properly followed the will of the Lord through the ages there would be but one today. A man who worships a multiplicity of Gods is thought of, by most religionists, as a heathen. And they so think because the Bible declares there is but one God. Yet this same religionist feels that one who declares there should be but one body of Christians is "cantankerous," narrow minded, and a bigot. But so far as the Bible is concerned, and religiously what other guide can Christians claim, it is just as reasonable to ask a man what God he worships as to ask him of what faith is he or to what body does he belong. Why? Because the same Bible in the same chapter and in two consecutive verses declares there is but one Lord, God, Faith, Baptism, and Body!

In scripture, this institution is spoken of as the family of God, as the vineyard of the Lord, as the vine and branches, and several other figures. In I Cor. 12:20, the apostle said: "Now are they many members, yet but one body." Jesus said: "Upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it." The word "church" is used in two senses in the Scriptures. It is used to embrace all the believers in the aggregate. That is the way Jesus used it when he said he would build his church. He meant it to include all believers in all ages until he should come again. It is used in a local sense as we have it in Phil. 1:1-2, where Paul speaks of the church of God in Philippi; and in Rom. 16:16 Paul said that the churches of Christ should salute the brethren in Rome. That meant that the church at Ephesus or the church at Antioch or the church at any other place would combine with all the disciples in the area to greet the church at Rome. There were no differences in these local churches in doctrine and practice. One was not one kind of church and another another kind of church but they were sister churches of like faith and practice. There was but one church in the world in that day, and that was the church that Jesus built. That church was the body of Christ, and there is but one body. All the believers should be united perfectly in the one church, and discords in Christianity are the curse and bane of the religion that Jesus died to establish. How can the church be the church triumphant when it is split into jarring parties and factions? This scribe pleads for a return of all believers to the church as it was in the first century. Concerning the name of this institution, it is simply called the church, the church of God, or the church which Jesus said he would build. Again, it is spoken of as the church which the Lord purchased with his blood in Acts 20:28. It should have no other designations than those set forth in the Scripture. Sectarian names are divisive and destructive. They ought not to be. The church of the living God is ample for all believers. The apostle Paul calls it the church of the living God in I Tim. 3:15. Finally, on the subject of the one church, which is the body of Christ, there should be harmony among believers in the matter of worship, which is set forth for it in the New Testament Scriptures.

The final point that harmonizes the whole religion of Christ with the present order and with the eternal future is the item of hope. We are saved by hope. (Rom. 8:24) We have hope as an anchor of the soul. "That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us: Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, and which entereth into that within the veil; whither the forerunner is for us entered, even Jesus, made an high priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec." (Heb. 6:18-20) Alexander Pope said in his essay on man that hope springs immortal in the human breast. Sphinxlike, it can rise from the ashes of every defeat to ascend into the ethereal blue on wings of bright expectancy and eternal glory. It is a spark of the divine that is planted in man. It raises him from the lowly earth to the vaulted sky. The hope of the gospel is eternal life. We have it in the thought of unity of all believers in the world to come and the privilege of living about the throne of Jehovah in the celestial city where we can sing psalms of praise while the ages of eternity roll by. A blessed thing is hope. In the final summary, then, we can see the perfect unity that is set forth in the religion of Christ. In "Paradise Lost," Milton said that devil with devil damned, firm concord holds. Men only disagree of creatures rational, though under heavenly hope. This divine septuple (Eph. 4:4-6) describes perfect unity.

Remember you are always welcome at any and all of our services.

Attend the Church of Christ. Bring the whole family.

NOW IS THE TIME TO CAN

Quantity of home-canned peaches from one bushel of fresh peaches, if purchased at July point values, would cost approximately 2,000 BLUE POINTS.

Peaches may be canned with corn syrup or with honey.

If you're canning without sugar, cook fruit in its own juice. Or add just enough hot water to keep fruit from sticking to pan. Can and process in the same way as if using sugar.
